

HTML Lists

Task 1: Favorite Fruits List

Requirements:

- Create a webpage titled 'Favorite Fruits'.
- Display the heading 'My Favorite Fruits'.
- Use an Unordered List ().
- Add Apple, Mango, Banana, Orange and Grapes.
- Use the default disc bullet style.

Expected Output:

My Favorite Fruits

- Apple
- Mango
- Banana
- Orange
- Grapes

Task 2: Daily Routine

Requirements:

- Create a webpage titled 'Daily Routine'.
- Display the heading 'My Daily Routine'.
- Use an Ordered List ().
- Add Wake Up, Brush, Exercise, Breakfast, Study and Sleep.
- Use default numbering.

Expected Output:

My Daily Routine

1. Wake Up
2. Brush
3. Exercise
4. Breakfast
5. Study
6. Sleep

Task 3: Programming Definitions

Requirements:

- Create a webpage titled 'Programming Definitions'.
- Display the heading 'Programming Technologies'.
- Use a Definition List (<dl>).
- Add terms HTML, CSS and JavaScript with suitable definitions.

Expected Output:

Programming Technologies

HTML

It is a Markup Language.

CSS

It is used for Styling.

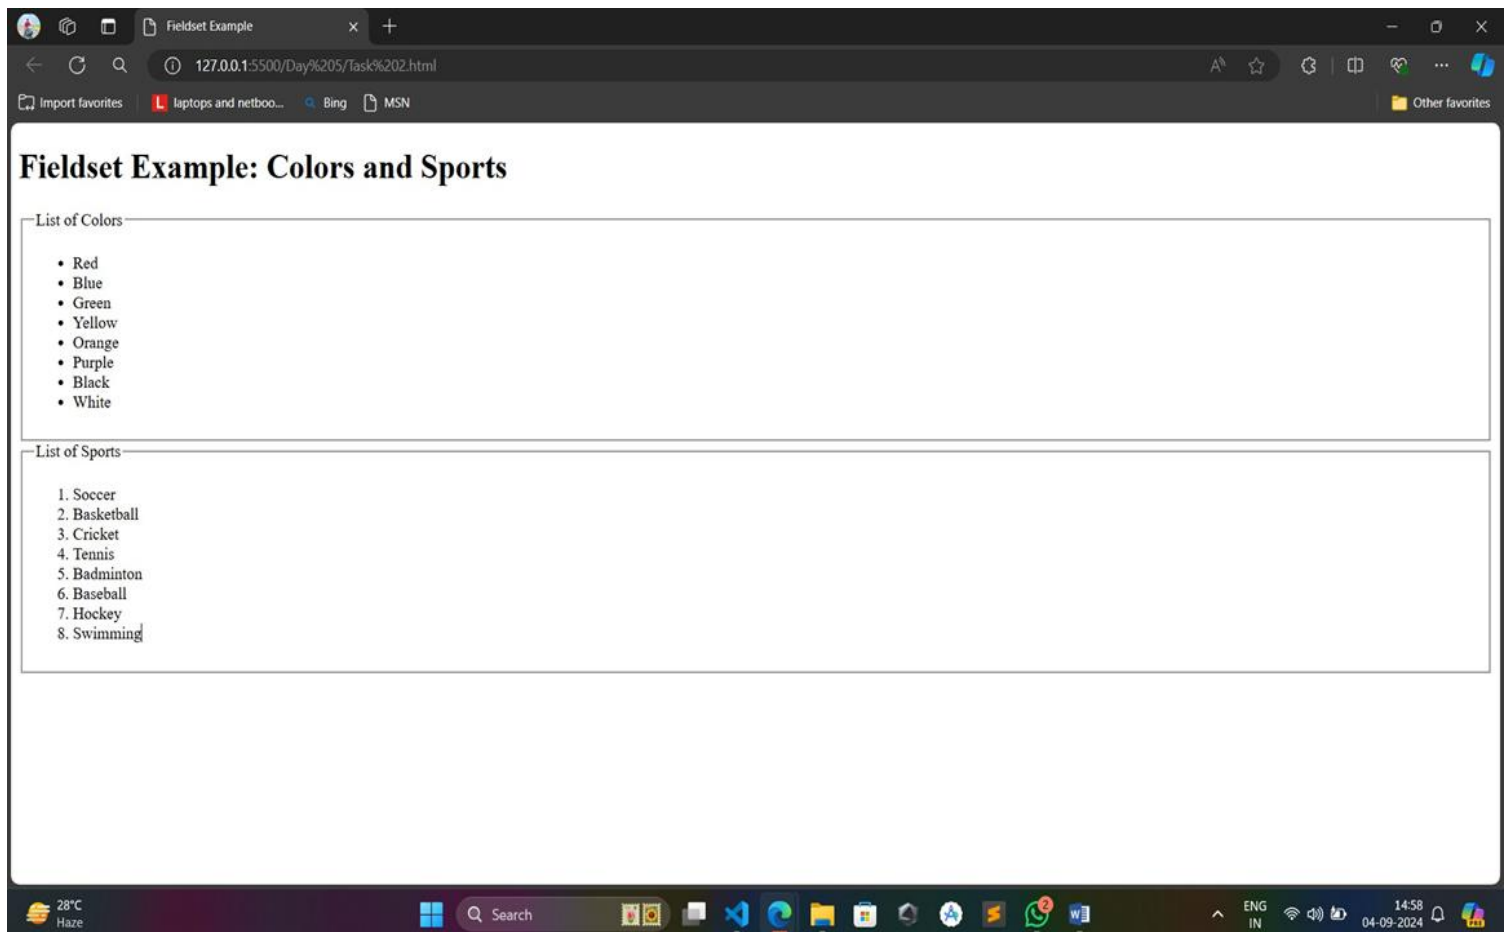

JavaScript

It is used to make webpages interactive.

Task 4: Fieldset Example

Requirements:

- ➔ Create a webpage titled 'Fieldset Example'.
- ➔ Display the heading 'Fieldset Example: Colors and Sports'.
- ➔ Use two <fieldset> elements with <legend>.
- ➔ First fieldset legend: 'List of Colors'.
- ➔ Add an unordered list with Red, Blue, Green, Yellow
- ➔ Second fieldset legend: 'List of Sports'.
- ➔ Add an ordered list with Soccer, Basketball, Cricket.....

Task 5: Nested Definition List

Requirements:

- Create a webpage titled 'Nested Definition List'.
- Display the heading 'Nested Definition List'.
- Use a Definition List (<dl>) with nested terms and descriptions.
- Create categories: Programming Languages, Databases, Web Technologies and Cloud Computing.
- Under each category add related terms using <dt> and descriptions using <dd>.

